

Australian Government
Australian Pesticides and Veterinary Medicines Authority

Fenitrothion uses – summary of assessment outcomes in proposed regulatory decision

April 2024

Fenitrothion uses – summary of assessment outcomes in proposed regulatory decision

Supported uses are highlighted in the following table.

Crop/host	Pest	Assessment outcome
Post-harvest uses
Stored cereal grains	Stored grain pests (various)	Supported (pending trade consultation)
Grain storage facilities and equipment (e.g. silos, storage bins)	Stored grain pests (various)	Not supported
Surface treatment: bulk stored cereal grain, stacks of bags etc.	Stored grain pests (various)	Not supported
Broiler poultry house: litter, walls, roof and feed sheds	Lesser mealworm (also known as litter beetle, darkling beetle)	Not supported
Fruit and Vegetable uses
Apples, cherries, grapes, cabbages, lettuce, soybean and tomato	Australian plague locust, spur-throated locust, migratory locust, small plague grasshopper and wingless grasshopper	Not supported
Cereal crop, Pasture and Forage uses
Cereals, pasture and forage crops	Australian plague locust, spur-throated locust, migratory locust, small plague grasshopper and wingless grasshopper	Not supported
Lucerne	Sitona weevil, Australian plague locust, spur-throated locust, migratory locust, small plague grasshopper and wingless grasshopper	Not supported
Pastures	Pasture cockchafer, corbie, winter corbie, oxycanus grub, underground grass grub	Not supported