OTHER NOTICES

Suspension of a Product Containing Diazinon and Associated Label Approval under Section 37(1)(b) of the *Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals Code Act 1994 (the Agvet Code)

REASONS

The suspension action is based on the Registrant failing to provide the information required to support the product as specified in a Section 33 Notice issued by the APVMA in September 2012.

The suspension action regarding the use pattern is based on the concern that the product may be an undue hazard to the safety of people exposed to it during its handling, and may have an effect that is harmful to human beings when the product is used according to the label instructions.

The Agvet Code provides that if the APVMA suspends the registration of a chemical product, it may also suspend any approval relating to a label for containers for the product.

Amendments to the APVMA MRL Standard—Outcomes of Review Decisions

The Australian Pesticides and Veterinary Medicines Authority (APVMA) approves maximum residue limits (MRLs) of agricultural and veterinary chemicals in agricultural produce, particularly produce entering the food chain. The MRLs approved by the APVMA are associated with a regulatory decision to register a product, grant a permit approval, or as an outcome from a review decision and are set out in the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals Code Instrument No. 4 (MRL Standard) 2012. The MRL Standard lists MRLs of substances that may arise from the approved use of agricultural and veterinary chemical products containing those substances on commodities used for human consumption as well as livestock feeds. The MRL Standard also provides the relevant residue definitions to which these MRLs apply. There may be situations where the residue definition for monitoring and enforcement is different to the definition used for dietary risk assessment purposes.

MRLs are set at levels which are not likely to be exceeded if the agricultural or veterinary chemicals are used in accordance with approved label instructions. In considering MRLs and variation to MRLs, the APVMA takes into account studies on chemistry, metabolism, analytical methodology, residues, toxicology, good agricultural practice and dietary exposure. In approving MRLs, the APVMA is satisfied, from dietary exposure assessment, that the levels set are not an undue hazard to human health.

The APVMA has amended the MRL Standard, as an outcome of the review of fenthion, with affect from 18 October 2013.

Details of the amendment can be found in the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals Code Instrument No. 4 (MRL Standard) Amendment Instrument 2013 (No. 8).

The amendments will be incorporated into the compilation of the Agricultural and Veterinary Chemicals Code Instrument No. 4 (MRL Standard) 2012.

The MRL Standard is accessible via the ComLaw website www.comlaw.gov.au or the links above.
