Email address

I, being the owner or authorised representative of the owner responsible for the husbandry of the livestock on the property/ies assigned the Property Identification Code (PIC) number(s) detailed below declare that I have today purchased from:

Supplier name		Contact phone no.
Supplier address		Supplier notification no.

The following HGP products that will be implanted into cattle and kept at the property associated with the following PIC number(s):

PIC number	Total quantity of doses	HGP brand and type	Batch number

And that I will permanently identify all treated animals by using the prescribed ear punch mark at the time of their implantation in accordance with the following requirements:

1. Only the approved ear punch available from authorised retailers of HGPs may be used for applying this prescribed earmark.
2. The prescribed ear punch mark shall be in the form of an equal sided triangle with sides of 20 millimetres.
3. The mark is to be applied so as to leave a space on all sides within the margin of the ear.
4. The ear shall be marked in accordance with state/territory law.
5. If an animal has previously been treated with HGPs and has been ear punched with the prescribed mark, there is no requirement to again identify the animal with this mark.

I recognise that supply and/or use of HGPs other than in accordance with the requirements of relevant state/territory legislation may constitute an offence under that legislation.

I acknowledge that a copy of this form will be retained by the above supplier and that the information on the form will be disclosed to the Australian Pesticides and Veterinary Medicines Authority (APVMA). This information may also be disclosed to other government agencies or persons involved in the beef industry and may be used in the regulation or management of the supply and use of HGPs and of cattle treated with HGPs.
